What to check before accepting a package with a photographer included

Check each item off when it is settled.

- [ ] What is the photographer's name, and what is their studio called?
- [ ] Can I see full photos and videos from their events, not just a sample?
- [ ] Is my contract with the photographer or with the venue, limo company or planner?
- [ ] Who pays the photographer, and when?
- [ ] How many hours of coverage does the package include, and starting when?
- [ ] Does it include video or only photos? Are the photographer and videographer two people?
- [ ] How many edited photos do I receive, and in what format?
- [ ] Does it include a photo session before the party?
- [ ] What is the usual delivery date, and when does it start counting?
- [ ] Who delivers the photos and video if the package is canceled or the vendor closes?
- [ ] What happens if the photographer gets sick that day?
- [ ] Can I talk to the photographer directly before the party?
- [ ] Do I get a receipt for every payment, with photo and video broken out?
- [ ] Will the venue let me bring my own photographer if I'd rather not use theirs?
